

DEMOCRATS LIKELY TO SPURN SMITH

LEFT VS. RIGHT BATTLE LOOMS OVER PLATFORM

Delegates Point to Challenge of New "Union" Party Headed by Lemke of Dakota.

WANT TO MEET CHALLENGE

Many More Conservative; Single Policy Statement Framed by Roosevelt.

By NATHAN ROBERTSON
Associated Press Staff Writer.

PHILADELPHIA, June 22—A democratic platform, patterned after the White House after the new platform, headed today toward a national convention in which democrats from both "left" and "right" will meet in evidence.

Robert Wagner of New York, prospective chairman of the national committee, bore the White House draft to the convention.

Some forces were at work arriving delegates to make the platform more "liberal" to meet the challenge of the new party headed by Rep. William Lemke of North Dakota, and other forces.

Faction Definitely Lost

Delegates of the move in this direction pressed the view that the platform issued yesterday by Alfred E. Smith and four other prominent Democrats asking the convention to find a "substitute" by President Roosevelt showed no new deal had lost this faction beyond recall.

James A. Farley, national committee chairman, said he saw no reason in the Lemke movement for "rearranging our plans" and there were potent strategists felt the party already had lost the great bulk of "liberals" and must cater to the followers of Smith and his group.

Arrival of Sen. Carter Glass of Virginia was expected to bolster the Roosevelt view. The peppy former congressman, a member of every reform committee since 1896, was the monetary plank four years ago. He often has criticized the Roosevelt ticket.

Clash Over Currency Clashing pressure from the "left" and "right" was centering on the monetary plank, and a few others, including the farm, Constitution, and national security programs. Foreign affairs, monopoly, and labor were other possible fighting issues.

Chiefly the issue confronting the platform committee and later the convention was whether to stand by the new deal, as now outlined, or advance. The reception given Smith's statement by commentary leaders showed little disposition to back.

One of the most apparent sectors of advance was the farm front.
Many Democrats felt the Republicans had approached them on this front, and a new step forward was necessary. There were proposals for a new scheme of crop insurance to protect farmers against drought and other "acts of God" and produce bad years.

Eye Crop Insurance
Sen. Wallace and Chester Cannon, former A.A. administrator, authoritatively said to be likely to a crop insurance plank, which who participated in the White House conference on the plank said it was not dissented.

The White House platform was not to contain a broad declaration of principles on the farm question, rural electrification, cooperative organizations, credit for farm tenants, regional trade agreements, and other wages for urban workers.

Little authoritative information was available here on other planks of the administration platform, but it was reported to contain strong anti-monopoly, labor, and social security planks, with emphasis throughout on the power of the federal government to solve the social and economic problems.

New Deal Likely To Force Use of Majority Rule

Southerners Demand Larger Delegations If Century Old Regulation Is Scrapped.

BY D. HAROLD OLIVER
Associated Press Staff Writer.

PHILADELPHIA, June 22—New dealers who think the time is ripe for scrapping the century-old two-thirds nominating rule at Democratic conventions believe the bark of the anti-repealers will be worse than their bite.

They look for a few vigorous speeches but largely passive resistance from southern delegates who for years have regarded the requirement as a valuable check against presidential and vice presidential selections not acceptable to Dixie.

The rule requires that two-thirds of the delegates must vote for a man before he can be nominated, and thus gives the powerful minority from the south virtual veto power over nominations.

Some southerners contended today that if majority rule is restored, advocated by President Roosevelt and National Chairman James A. Farley—the membership of southern delegates should be increased by way of compensation.

One of the south's prominent Democratic leaders—Joseph Daniels of North Carolina, came out for abolition of the two-thirds rule, calling it "absurd and archaic."

Daniels, former secretary of the navy and now ambassador to Mexico, predicted the rule would be repealed in accordance with recommendations of President Roosevelt and Farley.

Sen. Guffey of Pennsylvania said his state delegation would caucus tonight on the question. He predicted it would favor scrapping the rule.

Whether this suggestion would develop into any concerted drive was not indicated.

Advocates of majority rule said they found little or no organized cohesion among those seeking to save the two-thirds requirement.

"I've only been in town a short time, but I don't look for any organized fight against abrogating the two-thirds rule," said Sen. Clark of Missouri.

The Missourian, slated for the rule committee chairmanship, is expected to captain the pro-repeal brigade.

Clark said the rule should have been abolished with slavery. He added that it had prevented the nomination of Martin Van Buren in 1854 and of his father, Champ Clark, in 1912 after each had obtained a majority.

The first state caucus on the issue late last night resulted in a 6 to 5 vote among early arrivals from Oklahoma in favor of a simple majority rule. Oklahoma has 22 votes.

BONUS BOND CHECKS DUE EARLY THIS WEEK

Marion County Veterans Expected To Receive Money Tuesday or Wednesday.

Marion county world war veterans who were the first to have their bonds certified for cashing last week are expected to receive checks in return for their bonds Tuesday or Wednesday, postoffice officials said this morning.

They said they had received word from Cleveland that the handling of bonds and the mailing of checks was swamped the staff of workers, and that earlier plans to get the checks back to Ohio cities by Saturday or today were absolutely impossible.

Meanwhile, Marion county veterans continued to present bonus bonds at the postoffice for converting them to cash. Nineteen veterans presented bonds totaling $1,100 at the office Saturday. Today, 607 veterans had bonds totalling $239,560 certified for cashing at the Marion postoffice.

Summer, which arrived offici-a cool reception in Marion and vicinity with temperatures rang-

The mercury varied between a high of 75 yesterday and a low of ward slowly this morning.

The forecast is mostly cloudy tonight and Tuesday, probably showers and not much change in temperature also is recorded as the longest day of the year. The World's almanac fixed 4:23 a. m. as the time of sunrise yesterday and 7:40 p. m. as the time of sun-

REPORT FIVE MISHAPS HERE

One Woman Suffers Fractured

NO INJURIES ARE CRITICAL

Two Victims Given Treatment at Physician's Offices Here.

A Hardin county woman suffered a possible fractured collar bone, and several other persons were slightly injured in five automobile accidents reported to police in Marion city and county last week-end.

Mrs. George Weist of near Kenton, received the injury to her collar bone when the car in which she was riding and an automobile driven by Leroy Graybill, 19, of 26 Cottage street, sideswiped on route 20-S, four miles east of Marion, highway patrolmen from the Marion sub-station reported. The accident occurred at 12:10 a. m. today. Both cars were badly damaged and were brought to the McDaniel garage here.

Mrs. Weist, her husband, George Weist and two children, Leroy and Mary, were occupants in a car driven by A. L. Walters of near Kenton. Their car was westbound and after the collision it turned over on the highway and skidded to a halt on its top. Dick Gardner, Clark Robinson, Helen Smith, Ervin Glynn, all of Marion, were occupants in the Graybill car and escaped with only minor bruises.

highway patrolman said, Mrs. Weist was brought to the office of a Marion physician for treatment and to undergo X-rays today to determine the extent of her injuries.

A car driven by Paul Holler, 16, of near Cardington collided with a car driven by Mrs. R. R. Quackenbush of 498 South Prospect street Sunday at 12:20 p. m. at the intersection of Cherry street and Belfontaine avenue. The Holler car was damaged about the front end and was taken to the McDaniel garage.

Cars driven by Albert Ciera of 429 Avenida avenue and Robert Nitchell of near Marion collided at an ally intersection at the rear of 135 South Main street Saturday at 10:40 p. m. The cars were slightly damaged.

A car driven by W. Townsend of Barberton and a machine driven by Emmett Osterholt of 261 Uncepher avenue collided at Park boulevard and Columbia street at 9:40 p. m.
Saturday. Francis Ambrose of 565 Herman street, accompanying Townsend, received a slight injury when his head struck and broke the windshield of the car. Neither car was badly damaged.

Automobiles driven by Lawrence Everly of 331 East Mark street and George H. Glosser of Mt. Vernon avenue were damaged about 1 a. m. north of Marion on the Bucyrus pike. Glosser was treated at a physician's office for a cut above the left eye, while only minor bruises were suffered by others in the two cars.

Everly was accompanied by Fred Slime of 105 Leader street. With Glosser was Richard Cheney of St. James street. Both cars were towed in by the McDaniel garage wrecker, the Glosser car being taken to the McDaniel garage, and the other to Everly's home.

Body Believed Burned in Marion Co. Barn Fire

Search of Ashes on Farm Near Iberia To Be Made Today for Bones or Remnants of Clothing.

Belief of spectators that a human body was burned in a fire that destroyed a barn two miles northwest of Iberia in Marion county early yesterday was being investigated today by county authorities.

Dr. M. F. Axthelm of Caledonia, county coroner, said early arrivals at the fire told him they saw an object resembling a body lying on a beam supporting the haymow and that after the fire they took a small bone from the burning embers with a long rod.

He and other authorities planned to sift the ashes this afternoon when embers cooled in search of a belt buckle, buttons or other articles that might indicate whether a body was in the burning building.

The fire was discovered shortly after midnight Sunday morning by Mrs. H. E. McKibbin, wife of the tenant of the farm on which the barn was located. She said the fire was well under way when she noticed it from a bedroom window.

Driven Back By Heat Don Cole and William Roesch, neighbors, and Mr. McKibbin were among the first to reach the building. Dr. Axthelm quoted them as saying they saw the object resembling a body but were driven back by the intense heat when they attempted to pull it from the barn.

He quoted Mr. McKibbin as saying all livestock on the farm had been accounted for, indicating the bone raked from the building might have been that of a human being. The bone was five or six inches long. Dr. Axthelm said he could not tell definitely whether it was a human bone.

Nearness of the barn to a railroad one and one-half miles away caused early arrivals at the fire to suggest that a transient might have crawled into the haymow Saturday night to sleep. Dr. Axthelm said no reports of missing persons from this vicinity have been received.

Will Probe Murder Theory Possibility that the fire might have been started to cover up a murder will be investigated if today's sifting of ashes indicates there was a body in the barn, authorities said.

Prosecuting Attorney Paul D.
Michael and Deputy Sheriff Gene Gieseler accompanied Dr. Axthelm to the scene of the fire yesterday after an Iberia resident had called the coroner. Sheriff Fred Miller was to accompany these officials in a search of the ashes this afternoon.

Dr. Axthelm said the cause of the fire was not determined. He said Mr. McKibbin told him he had been in the barn at 10 o'clock Saturday night with a flashlight while a dog was catching rats and that there was no evidence of fire at that time.

The farm is owned by A. E.
Burkhart of Gallon. No estimate of the loss was available today.
The fire destroyed the barn, a large structure, a mow of hay and 50 bushels of oats.

David Hunter one time. We found a razorblade in the bushes, and for two weeks that wild hog was all our party had to eat. There wasn't even any salt to cure it with."

"I've told them so often I don't believe them myself," said Henry F. Russell of Alliance, 57 years old and the youngest veteran at the encampment. "They shot a horse out from under me, and if it hadn't been for my comrades I'd have been a prisoner."

Russell said he would ride a horse in the parade Wednesday.
Leander Cummings, 66, of Jackson, said he would march in the parade if he marched once.

A number of veterans' wives were here, and Mrs. Cummings was among them. She was a widow and had been married to a soldier who was killed in the war.

The G. A. R. veterans took over about 60 comfortable chairs in a downtown Cleveland hotel today and the war stories started, an Associated Press dispatch reported.

Mr. Layton told a reporter he "was just fool enough to go to the war and come back with two wounds."

Talmadge Asks Smith Group to Team With Him

By The Associated Press
ATLANTA, June 22—Gov. Eugene Talmadge, new deal critic, today urged Alfred E. Smith and other discontented Democrats to "line up with me on my plan to fight the new deal and Roosevelt within the Democratic party."

The Georgia executive made it plain he did not intend to hold the party ticket.

"I am a party man," Talmadge said, banging his fist on his desk.
"I am opposed to Roosevelt being the nominee of the party."

"I am opposed to new deal policies. I think I've been of great assistance to the American people in bringing cases to the supreme court in the name of the state of Georgia in order to defeat certain new deal policies."

"But I want it understood that I am in the Democratic party and there to stay."

The governor said he was not informed about what former Gov.
Smith, former Gov. Ely of Massachusetts, former secretary of state Bainbridge Colby and others intended to do if the Democratic national convention nominates Mr.
Roosevelt.

OHIO DELEGATES FOR ROOSEVELT

Charles Sawyer Likely To Be Named to National Committee Without Opposition.

WOULD SUCCEED JULIAN Treasurer Barred by Roosevelt Order Banning Officials from Political Posts.

By The Associated Press
CINCINNATI, June 22—The OHIO DELEGATION, June 22—Ohio's delegation to the Democratic national convention was badly split up physically today on its journey to Philadelphia, but was unanimous in its choice of Roosevelt and Garner to head the party ticket in November.

Only six delegates and five alternates were aboard the train that left Columbus last night.
There were probably as many convention visitors.

The consensus appeared to be that Charles Sawyer probably would be selected by the delegation caucus Tuesday for the national committee post without opposition. Albert H. Horstman of Dayton and William E. River of Columbus generally were expected to withdraw from the race.

It was reported reliably that State Chairman Francis W. Poulson had promised to support Sawyer. Sawyer said he had been promised support from all quarters, but that he would not be a candidate at the caucus if U. S.
Treasurer W. A. Julian of Cincinnati sought reelection.

The only chance of Julian seeking the position again, according to the Hamilton county delegation, would be for President Roosevelt to react to his order against federal officials being members of the committee. The President was not expected to withdraw the order, however, and Julian has announced he will support Sawyer.

Receding the President's order also would lift the ban against Mrs. Bernice A. Pike, customs collector at Cleveland, for national committee woman. Delegation members said, she would seek re-election in such case. Otherwise she will retire in favor of Mrs.
Mildred Jaeger of Cleveland, wife of the state highway director.

The delegates were M. R. Denver of Wilmington and State Welfare Director Margaret Allman of Columbus. Delegates at large were Charles Sawyer, John C. Demery and James Clark, all of Cincinnati, and Z. C. Ames of Sidney. The alternates were Mrs. Helen Truax of Bucyrus, widow of the late Rep.
Charles V. Truax, Mrs. Isabelle Krickler of Portsmouth, John Wood of Georgetown, S. M. Maag of Foster, and Mrs. Myra Smith of London.

Among the convention visitors were William J. Leonard of Cincinnati, State Rep. James J. Gilberty of Dayton, Howard A. Jones of Dayton, and Paul Packard of Columbus, publicly director for the state organization.

Stalled hotel lobbies and downtown streets, decorations abounding, and "hand-holding" happy days are here. A call for the quadrangle dance of tonight, fanfare for "rank and file." But the leaders, secluded in rooms high above the bustle, had their platform problems to wrestle with.

One question apparently destined to arouse floor debate, the repeal of the hundred-year-old rule regulating a two-thirds majority to nominates, has now been set for disposition Thursday morning. The southern bloc, however, stands up for that. The power that be expects to settle it in stride.

PHILADELPHIA, June 22—The convening Democrats took this long-time Republican chief today and predictions by leaders that the national conclave would return a thundering "no" to Alfred E. Smith's demand for the renomination of President Roosevelt.
One after another, new dealers in command of the situation here stepped forward to denounce Smith as to shake their heads sadly over what they called his mistaken course.

Among the delegates arriving for this convention opening tonorrow, none thus far have been to support the statement in which Smith and four other anti-new deal Democrats called on the convention to put aside Mr. Roosevelt and nominate "some genuine Democrat" for President.

Plan Roosevelt Rally
To all appearances delegates were bent on answering Smith with a brilliant pro-Roosevelt rally and platform.

Pending the opening gavel thousands of delegates and visitors bustled themselves with gossip about the prospects of a party split, making sure meanwhile of their seats for the first Democratic national convention in Pennsylvania history and enjoying themselves.

HOLLYWOOD EXCELS IN TURNING OUT FILM STORY, "FURY" By GEORGE H. MCMURRAY
Every time and then Hollywood turns out a motion picture that is as genuinely good as any our ageous I think that we are inclined to forget the film capital for much of the why-whatny product ground out between times. Such a picture was "The Informer" the first film of last year. And such a picture is "Fury" which may lead the talkies this year. "Fury" opened a three day run at the Palace theater yesterday.

This latest U-G-M release is a slashing and bitter attack against our political and social structure as we know it today. It is a stirring indictment of mob rule and of our political set up and of rampant "mongering" it is an honest exposure of our civilization with the thin polish scraped off.

"Fury" is more than that. It is a terrific hit. It is a great motion picture. There have been no pulling of punches in this sincere and powerful tale of mob rule that wrecked a man's life and led him to plan one of the most relentless revenge conceivable. The story was directed by Fritz Lang who makes his American debut after years in such hits abroad as "M" and "Metropolis." Lang is intensely loyal to his realism and his capacity to achieve unusual photographic values. Norman Krasna, author of the original story of "Fury."

Even though the courtroom scenes at the close bear the touch of typical Hollywood melodramatics they have not weakened this fine picture because "Fury" never lessens its thrust at mob violence.

The victim of the mob is a hard working young garage owner from Chicago to a western town to meet the mob. He had long planned to marry. He is arrested in a small town as a kidnap suspect and is jailed pending investigation of his identity. The only evidence against him is his possession of a $5 ransom note. While awaiting the arrival of the district attorney rumor of the man's capture spreads through the town becoming magnified with each telling until the townspeople believe the prisoner guilty of the abduction and violation of a girl. A mob fed on hysteria and the whispered rumors storms the prison to seize the prisoner and administer murderous justice without waiting for the law to take its course. Unable to break

WISCONSIN LIBERALS SPURN LEMKE PLEA

Launch Campaign After Refusing To Aid Union Party.

By The Associated Press
OMAHA, Wis., June 22.—Spurning pleas for support of Rep. William Lemke and his new Union party, the Wisconsin Farmer-Labor Progressive federation embarked on its first major political campaign today.

The organization, formed six months ago by leaders of the Progressive and Socialist parties, the state federation of labor and farm groups—unanimously tabled at its convention yesterday a resolution advocating aid for the Lemke forces.

Proponents asserted the United States was more closely related to the federation's objectives than those of any other party and declared an alliance would give the federation "an entering wedge as we can win in 1936." Opponents termed the Union party a "political party of political claptrap" that would appear on the ballots of only a few states.

BOYS' STATE BALLOTS FOR NEW OFFICERS

Brisk Campaigns Bring Threat of Split and Third Party at Columbus Convention.

By The Associated Press
COLUMBUS, O., June 22.—Quite capable of taking care of their own political fortunes, 42 high school boys balloted today for officers of the Buckeye Boys' State after campaigns which afforded all hands at politics a lesson or two.

John Starn of Greenfield led the ticket of the national party. His federalist opponent for the governor's chair was Carl Giblin of Palmyra.

Following the caucuses which produced the national and federalist slates, there was a disturbing talk of a third party under the leadership of candidates defeated for the regular party nominations. At the last check the rump forces had made no tangible progress.

With Secretary of State George B. Myers and his staff supervising, the boys voted for their choices. Voting machines were used for the state and non-partisan judicial tickets and county and city tickets went on "Australian" ballots.

Tonight a member of the Ohio supreme court bench will swear in the successful candidates and elaborate inaugural ceremonies will be conducted.

$1,500 FIRE BURNS ROOF FROM HOUSE

Ray Baldauf Residence at 546 South Prospect Street Damaged.

Sparks from the chimney ignited a shingle roof at the home of Ray Baldauf of 546 South Prospect street, at 11:45 a. m. today and resulted in damage estimated at $1,500 before firemen brought the blaze under control. The fire consumed in entire roof of the dwelling and the wallpaper and plastering on both the second and first floors was badly damaged by water. The loss was covered by insurance, firemen said.

Mrs. Baldauf, who was at home at the time of the fire, had ignited papers in the furnace to warm the residents and sparks which fell in the roof caused the blaze. The alarm was turned in by a neighbor whose attention was called to the fire by a passerby.

Five firemen from company No. 1 answered the call. They laid two lines of hose and worked more than an hour before extinguishing the blaze. The fire was blazing through the roof at several places when the firemen arrived. Shortly after the firemen returned members of company No. 2 were called to a vacant lot, opposite 932 Woodrow avenue to extinguish a grass fire. No damage was reported.

LEWIS MEN SPEED STEEL UNIONIZATION

Plan To Have 200 Organizers In Field By July 1; Leaders Ask Economic Liberty.

PITTSBURGH, June 22.—The industrial unionists drove forward today in their campaign to organize the 450,000 steel workers into one large union, encouraging their first two mass meetings.

Clinton S. Golden, regional director for the recently set-up steel workers organizing committee, (SWOC) affiliated with John L. Lewis' committee for industrial organization, predicted:

"By July 1 our campaign will be going ahead by leaps and bounds. We will have 200 organizers in the field."

Philip Murray, vice president of the United Mine Workers and chairman of SWOC told a crowd at McKeesport yesterday:

"Economic liberty will come to us only through our own efforts. The United Mine Workers of America is a strong union today, not because of Phil Murray or John Lewis, but because the men of the mines themselves decided it was worth fighting for. The steel workers can do likewise if they will."

MARION SPORTSMEN WANT LAKES OPEN

Members of the Marion and Morrow county Fish and Game Protection associations today joined their efforts to backing the proposal to open the state lakes at Mt. Olmsted for fishing. Officials of the Morrow county group planned to attend a hearing called by the state conservation council for consideration of the proposal. Although it was not definite whether any Marion county sportsmen would attend the meeting, to be held at the New House in Columbus Tuesday at 7:30 p. m., association officers today mailed a resolution voicing their approval of the opening of the lakes.

Fishing was banned at the lakes for a five-year period last summer. Richmond county sportsmen have also gone on record as favoring the opening and will probably send representatives to the hearing.

APPROVED WPA WORK INVOLVES 4 BILLIONS

90,000 Jobs Under Way With Four Out of Every Five Dollars Used for Labor.

By The Associated Press
WASHINGTON, June 22.—Administration Harry L. Hopkins reported today the WPA is ready to begin the new fiscal year July 1 with nearly $4,500,000,000 in approved projects available for the job program.

A new report of work progress administration activities showed that 90,000 projects, involving an expenditure of $1,149,371,856, were under way as of April 15, out of a total of 175,000 projects with an estimated total cost of $4,550,000,000.

Approximately four out of every five dollars made available by WPA, the analysis said, are used for direct labor costs, while 85 per cent of the contributions of sponsoring communities goes for materials, equipment and other operating expenses.

Hopkins, who said yesterday it would not be necessary to have the projects reapproved under the new $1,425,000,000 WPA appropriation, were putting up $255,000,000, or 18 per cent of the cost of work now under way.

An order to be issued this week will lift the requirement that a person must have been on the dole prior to Nov. 1 in order to obtain a WPA job.

Officials said today that state WPA administrators thereafter would decide which of those eligible for local relief and able to work would get jobs, regardless of when they went on relief.

Lifting of the previous requirement, originally adopted to prevent communities from certifying an excessive number of unemployed for WPA work, was forecast several months ago by Administrator Hopkins.

NEW PENSION REQUESTS DROP

Decrease of 50 Per Cent Reported Here by County Administrator.

A drop of more than 50 per cent in old age pension applications was reported today by J. L. Kirby, pension administrator for Marion county. Mr. Kirby pointed out, however, that the decrease probably will be only temporary, due to more liberal requirements to become effective July 15.

Applications have dropped from a monthly average of more than 50 to a low of 22 in May, Mr. Kirby said. He regards this as an indication that the saturation point is being approached under the present legal requirements.

The advent of the federal social security act, fully effective July 15, will liberalize requirements to an extent that is expected to open up a new field of potential pensioners, Mr. Kirby said.

Henry J. Herrold, chief of the state aid for the aged division, has estimated that more than 20,000 pensioners will be added in the state as a result of these changes.

One of the important changes effective July 15 will be that applicants will not be required to assign their property to the state in order to receive a pension. Assignment will be voluntary under the new law, Mr. Kirby said. He knew of many persons that had been prevented from receiving pensions because of the previous requirement.

Applicants have been required to assign their property to the state if it has a net value of $500 or more.

Appearance of the federal government in the pension picture has made approval of many pensions more difficult, Mr. Kirby said. In that documentary evidence of the applicant's citizenship and age now required, where before affidavits from two persons of long acquaintance had been sufficient.

Birth certificates are not available for persons old enough to receive pensions, he said, thereby making it necessary to search for proof of age in such documents as employment applications, medical statements, insurance papers, and the like.

Citizenship often is even harder to prove, Mr. Kirby said, and proof of it many times hinges on documentary proof of an applicant's place of birth.

School Nutrition Activities Praised As Benefit Dance for Milk Fund Nears

Did children really benefit from the half-pasta of milk, the codliver oil, the graham wafers which make up the menu of the midday meal served to nearly 250 undernourished children of the public and parochial schools the past school year?

It is a natural question from those approached to buy tickets for the Red Cross nutrition committee's milk fund dance Wednesday night at the Crystal Lake park pavilion.

The answer is to be found at the Glenwood school, situated in a section of Marion in which residents have been most hard-hit in the last few years.

All of our children gained, most of them on an average of two pounds," was the statement of Mrs. Anna Rutherford, principal under whose direction the welfare of some several hundred children of pre-junior high school age is placed. Only one among 48 boys and girls given the nutrition committee's daily diet of milk or codliver oil and wafers did not gain at least two pounds, and investigation of this one child revealed that he was "naturally thin." It was a family trait beyond the control of the nutritionists.

When the diet was begun at the Glenwood school 90 children were selected as being needful of the Red Cross nutrition program.

CITY BRIEFS

Facis Charge—Hugh Walters, 24, of Prospect, was arrested near 121 South Main street, Sunday at 12:50 a. m., and charged with intoxication and disorderly conduct. Police said that he was engaged in an altercation.

Religious Rally—A rally of old-time religion during which a special appeal will be made to the young people, will begin tonight at the Second Pilgrimage church at Mark street and East-lentine avenue, the pastor Rev. W. E. Music announced today. Rev. and Mrs. Bryan, evangelists and musicians, will conduct the services. A song service will launch the meeting each night at 7:30.

Condition Improves—W. P. Duce of Clearwater, Fla., here with Mrs. Duce as summer guests of Rev. and Mrs. Allegood of 116 North Seftner, is reported in good condition at Mt. Carmel hospital in Columbus where he underwent an eye operation Friday. The operation followed treatment for a cataract.

Bicycle Stolen—A bicycle belonging to Chester Warren of 618 Evans street was taken from Chen avenue and Silver street Saturday about 10 p. m. which was pulled by Mrs. Francis Hurst of Vernon Heights boulevard who is general chairman for the benefit dance.

This June, when schools were closed, approximately 75 per cent of the boys and girls at the Glenwood school gained to the extent that they were of average weight for their height and age, according to charts of Miss Dolores McManis, city health nurse. Only approximately 20 children were still being served when lack of funds forced the committee to abandon its work early in April.

Effective? Any teacher in any of the public or parochial grades where the nutrition committee has worked not only gives her highest praises for the work for the last year, but is looking forward to a continued program next year.

Tickets for the dance, at 50 cents per person, may be obtained from Mrs. John Quigley of Olney avenue, members of her committee, or at the pavilion Wednesday night.

Tally Ho Club Members Renew Bond of Thirty Years Ago in Reunion

ASSOCIATIONS of 30 years ago were renewed Saturday afternoon and night when members of the Tally Ho club, an old-time social organization of young Marion men, held their first annual reunion.

The meeting, held at Eaglewood club, was attended by 15 from the club membership roll, and messages of greeting were received from four others who were unable to be present.

The hours were passed with informal exchanges of anecdotes and reminiscences of the club's activities and with songs popular in the late 90's and early in this century. Piano accompaniments for the singing were played by Harold Compton, a guest of the club members.

A six o'clock dinner was followed by a short organization meeting in which arrangements were made to hold the meeting annually. A permanent Tally Ho club reunion association was formed by election of Charles E. Sechrist, Marion manager of the Ohio Fuel Gas Co., as president, and William G. Lusch, vice president of the Marion Lumber Co., as secretary.

Interesting features of the reunion were photographs and other mementoes of the club and its members, included were a souvenir program and a photograph of a minstrel performance given by the club in the old Grand Opera House in December of 1901, with the late George Shute as director. The Grand stood on the site now occupied by the Ohio theater and Elks club. It was partly destroyed by fire about 20 years ago and later rebuilt by the Elks.

ing par by a total of four strokes. John Rife, at Mar-O-Del, broke even with par with two 37's Saturday, while Walter Hughes scored a 75, one over, while playing his match yesterday with Mr. Kline.

STATE CHURCH MEETING ENDS

Leave Bucyrus For Four-Day Missionary Convention.

June 22—More than 100 delegates from the State Church of Christ, a missionary society of the church, and nearly 100 young people of the church, gathered in the church here today for the opening sessions of the four-day missionary convention. The convention, which was held in conjunction with the annual conference of the church, was opened by a service with the singing of hymns and the reading of the opening prayer by Rev. W. H. Allen, pastor of the church. The convention will continue through Thursday, June 25, and will conclude with a service on Friday, June 26. The convention is being held at the church here because of the excellent facilities and the friendly atmosphere of the community. The delegates will be engaged in a series of sessions, including the study of the Bible, the discussion of missionary work, and the election of officers for the coming year. The convention is expected to be a most successful one, and will result in a renewed interest in missionary work among the members of the church.

Champ Clark's Son Seeks To Avenge Father's Loss of Presidency in 1912

By HERBERT PLUMMER Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON — A son will avenge the defeat of his father for President if the Democrats scrap the "two-thirds rule" at Philadelphia.

The son is Bennett Champ Clark, United States senator from Missouri. The father was the late Champ Clark, speaker of the house who lost the Democratic nomination at Baltimore in 1912 after receiving a majority of the votes on early ballots.

Senator Clark, as chairman of the rules committee for the national Democratic convention at Philadelphia, will report the resolution calling for abrogation of the 104-year-old two-thirds rule.

Invented by Jackson "To say that it will give me a sentimental pleasure," says Clark, "is putting it mildly. I've been whooping it up to do away with that thing all my life."

Introduced at the first Democratic convention in Baltimore in 1832 as a move of Andrew Jackson to impede John C. Calhoun, the rule requiring a two-thirds vote to nominate has prevented two majority candidates from winning a presidential nomination.

On the 10th ballot Clark mustered 556 votes, 11 more than a majority, to Woodrow Wilson's 352. Yet eventually Wilson was nominated and subsequently elected President.

That defeat embittered Champ Clark, and the feeling persists in his family today.

Helped First "Dark Horse" But for the two-thirds rule Martin Van Buren would have been nominated in 1844, since he had a majority on the first ballot. It robbed him of victory, however, and gave it in a stampede of wily delegates to James K. Polk, the first "dark horse" nominee in American politics.

At New York in 1874, William G. McAdoo urged abolition of the rule, but the rules committee said "no" and was upheld. At one time McAdoo came within 20 votes of a majority.

Again in 1932, the supporters of Senator Bennett Champ Clark of Missouri, as chairman of the rules committee for the Democratic national convention, demands the death penalty for the "two-thirds rule" that cost his father, the late Champ Clark, a presidential nomination in 1912. Father and son are shown together above.

Both President Roosevelt and National Chairman Farley have announced themselves in favor of discarding the two-thirds rule at Philadelphia.

Text of Attack on Roosevelt

By The Associated Press NEW YORK, June 22—The following statement was issued yesterday by Messrs. Smith, Colby, Reed, Ely and Cohan:

To the delegates to the national Democratic convention of 1936:

As men who believe in the principles, teachings and traditions of the Democratic party as they were personified by Thomas Jefferson, Andrew Jackson and Grover Cleveland, land, we urge you, who meet in the name of the party-made glorious in the minds of patriotic Americans by the records of those men, to emulate their examples and do in the present grave crisis confronting our country what those great leaders would have done under such conditions.

Strike at Parliamentarism

We suggest to you, as all of these men were conspicuous for courage these, largely caused by the incompetence of public servants — and if there is no other way to do this, you must—during the continuance of such help to otherwise helpless millions of Americans — have the honor of the country by preventing the dispensers of these public funds from converting the voters, for whom the money has been appropriated, not as a bribe but as a national necessity.

These are hard tasks even for men who are worthy of succession to the leadership of the Democratic party. This would necessarily involve the putting aside of Franklin D. Roosevelt and the substitution of some genuine Democrat—of whom you will have so many on your list of delegates.

Is it too much to expect, with the many patriotic men and women among you, that the convention will have the courage and character to do these things? You will have to do them if you are to show yourselves fit to follow in the footsteps of Jefferson, Jackson and Cleveland.

The temptation to do otherwise may be great.

But if you do not act as those men would have acted, you should put aside the name of the party, which you will have deserted, and adopt a name which will properly reflect the principles of a regimented state, as advocated in the so-called new deal legislation.

We hope for the best and call upon you to stand for Democratic principles so that the coming contest may be between two great American groups, which have honest differences of opinion, within the framework of the Constitution.

If you do, you will deserve success and honor—no matter what may be the outcome of the campaign, for in either case, American institutions will be safe.

If you fail, then patriotic voters of all parties will know unhesitatingly to what standard they must rally in order to preserve the America of the great leaders of the past.

We beg to subscribe ourselves as men who will remain faithful to Democratic ideals and traditions, as well as to our country.

Faithfully yours,

ALFRED E. SMITH

In Ohio History

(From the J. H. Galbraith collection of Ohio histories, written for The Associated Press.)

"OLD HENRY"

Henry Frank, known in pioneer times in Wayne county as "Old Henry," was a connecting link between Indian history and pioneer history of that vicinity. Born in Fayette county, Pa., he was captured in his young manhood by Indians and taken to Ohio.

The Indians wanted to adopt him into their tribe. Frank accepted the proposition, not because it pleased him, but because it looked like the best thing for him. He was much of help and was compelled to witness the burning of Crawford. In the confusion that followed that victory, Frank escaped and finally reached his home and friends in Fayette county, after captivity of more than five years.

Want Markets Saved

In chasing the shadow of foreign markets we must not throw away the substance of the greatest market of the world—the domestic market of the United States of America. You must put an end to the orgy of spending our public funds and the creating of millions of additional tax eaters who are breaking the backs of the honest majority of our country—men and women, who still love and have aided their parents before them. You must do away with conditions under which twenty millions of Americans are on the edge, with nothing to hope for under present rules except a continuance of that condition of semi-servility.

You must preserve the Constitution and under it the three separate, distinct and independent branches of government. To that end you must have a President who will remain within his own sphere of jurisdiction and not make congress into a rubber stamp or try to intimidate the judiciary into an endorsement of his efforts to turn our republic into a dictatorship on the European model or an Asiatic absolutism.

You must follow the advice and example of the great Presidents of the past and keep our country free from entangling alliances with old world powers. You must insist upon a chief executive who will collect the monies due us from defaulting governments instead of encouraging by silence and otherwise a continuance of defaults.

Claim Money Missed

You must, above all, put an end to the campaign, now under full swing, to buy the presidency by the misuse of funds—generously given by the people of the United States to alleviate want and dis-
